The 21st century education lays emphasis on unrestrained freedom of choice to help young learners develop creativity . Through this newsletter, I am happy to share a few glimpses of our pursuits in this direction .

I take the opportunity to congratulate the Headmaster, teachers, students and the parents who have rendered the fullest support for the smooth conduct of events in the K.V. ROHTAK and release of Primary Newsletter.

A newsletter is an inspiring forum mirroring the activities undertaken in the common minimum programme.

It recognizes the roles that students, staff and the whole community have in providing opportunities to empower students for the future.”
